

Darien Boat Club Rules for Use of the Deck

- Please introduce yourself to Club Staff and fellow members. Get to know each other!
- Members are required to give Club Staff the member family name upon request.
- Use of the deck is first come, first served. There are no reservations for tables and chairs.
- Table use is limited to one per member family.
- If you can get by with a smaller table, then please take the smaller table.
- Club Staff are not expected to clean up after you. Please clean up after yourselves.

- Belongings left unattended at chairs and tables for more than 20 minutes will be removed. Members should not expect to “reserve a table” by placing belongings at the table then leaving the table for an extended period of time.
- Put recyclables and trash into their respective bins.
- Members are responsible for the behavior and safety of their guests and children. Children should not be left unattended.
- All members are encouraged to notify Club Staff if they suspect non-members are making use of the Club unaccompanied by a current member. There is a membership roster in the office to check names.
